ANNEX A

TRADITIONAL HAWKER FAVOURITES

Immerse in a distinctive Penangite food experience, savour the authentic flavour of each dish created from recipes perfected by years of experience and some handed down from one generation to another, each with a reputation to boast.

Penang Rojak

The key to Penang Rojak is the rojak sauce mixture, which uses good quality hae-ko (prawn paste) and each hawker has his proprietary recipe. This salad usually includes diced cucumbers, refreshing jambu and pineapples.

Cuttlefish Kang Kong

Matched with a sweet and slightly spicy sauce, this unassuming yet moreish plateful of crunchy cuttlefish and water convolvulus is a well-loved quintessential street food. True to its Penang roots, a final drizzle of quality hae-ko tops this simple dish.

Nasi Lemak with Nonya Chicken Kapitan

Fragrant nasi lemak rice is paired with a succulent Nonya chicken Kapitan; an adaptation of the dry-style chicken curry, besides the usual condiments of homemade sambal chilli and crispy ikan bilis.

Penang Laksa

The Penangite version of the laksa offers an appetising bowl of thick rice noodles steeped in a tangy tamarind fish-based broth. Pineapple, cucumber Bunga kantan (torch ginger); which gives the dish its distinctive fragrance and lashings of fresh hae-ko (prawn paste) provide the crowning glory.

Penang Prawn Mee

Also known as Hokkien Prawn Mee, the comforting robust stock is a labour of love – the soup comprises prawn heads, shells and pork ribs

Char Kway Teow

Tossed over high heat which imparts an unmistakable deeply-smoky wok-hei or 'breath of the wok' to the dish, this rendition differs from local version in its use of thinner 'kway teow' rice noodles and lesser sweet dark soy sauce.

Roti Canai

An Indian-influenced crisp, buttery flatbread pan-fried to crisp perfection; this popular snack can be enjoyed as a meal itself at any time of the day. The crispy and fluffy texture of the flatbread is best enjoyed when shredded into bite-size pieces, fully drenched in the fragrant Dhal Curry or Chicken Curry. Add with a scoop of the fragrant Sambal Chilli for a sweet and spicy taste.

Lor Bak

A popular fried snack in Penang, this comprises five-spice meat rolls, prawn fritters and deep fried bean curd served with homemade chilli sauce and a thick soy-based sauce. Painstakingly hand-rolled and marinated by the hawkers, the meat rolls are juicy with a tender bite.

Kway Teow Soup / Dry Kway Teow

A comforting dish, the smooth textured Kway Teow (flat rice noodle) is submerged in a ladle of delicately prepared soup that is light yet refreshing, combined with a good mix of ingredients such as fish balls, fish cake, and shredded chicken. Garnish with spring onions and sliced chilli for a satisfying taste.

Oyster Omelette

One cannot miss this culinary treasure among the list of popular street food in Penang. Popularly known as 'Orh-Jian', this is a wok-fragrant combination of rice flour batter, eggs and a generous portion of oysters. The ingredients are tossed over high heat to achieve a crisp omelette.

Ban Chang Kueh

Dessert lovers will not be disappointed with these piping hot golden-brown pancakes enveloping a spoonful of margarine, ground peanuts and sugar. Ban Chang Kueh are made in customised small round pans that result in wonderfully-crisp edges and a chewy soft interior.

Ice Kachang

The towering bowl comprises finely cold shaved ice topped with Attap Chee (palm seed), red beans, sweet corn and drizzled with evaporated milk, red rose syrup or sarsi syrup which gives a jubilant jolt in every mouthful.

Chendol

A shower of shaved ice drenched in fragrant coconut milk and rich Gula Melaka syrup come together to create the distinguished flavour of Chendol. Served with chockful of red beans and green jelly noodles.
